The nature and sources of social cohesion. Problems of regulating and controlling human behavior. Emphasis placed on major economic and political institutions involved in social control. This includes problems of human wants and needs.

203. American and World Problems (S)
Fall, Winter, Spring, Summer. 4(4-0)
S S 202, S S 211, S S 221, or S S 241 recommended; S S 201 preferred.
The international scene with the focus on problems of economic development, conflict among the nation-states and attempts at conflict control.

204. The Emergence of Man (S)
Fall, Winter, Spring, Summer. 4(4-0)
The socio-social evolution of man. The theories and empirical findings of the behavioral sciences are brought to bear upon the nature of man.

205. Coping with Changing Institutions in Modern Society (S)
Fall, Winter, Spring, Summer. 4(4-0)
S S 201, S S 211, S S 221, or S S 241 recommended; S S 201 preferred.
The meaning of deviant behavior and personal disorganization and their impact on society. Selected problems examined in depth.

206. The Individual and Metropolitan Society (S)
Fall, Winter, Spring, Summer. 4(4-0)
Factors and directions in metropolitan change. Impacts on life styles and life strategies of individuals and groups. Challenges to traditional family, educational and community patterns.

207. Economics, Politics and the Individual in the Metropolis (S)
Fall, Winter, Spring, Summer. 4(4-0)
S S 201, S S 211, S S 221, S S 241, recommended; S S 221 preferred.
Patterns of economic and political participation: The impact on the individual. Employment security and job satisfaction, economic rewards, political power and civil rights. Intermingling of economic and political activities.

208. World Urbanization: Cultures and Common Issues (S)
Fall, Winter, Spring, Summer. 4(4-0)
S S 202, S S 212, S S 222 or S S 242 recommended; S S 222 preferred.
The unity of urban life patterns and the emergence of modern-day urban problems. Cultural variations in approach to issues-comparative, political, social, economic, ideological systems.

209. Cultures in Crisis (S)
Fall, Winter, Spring, Summer. 4(4-0)
The nature and sources of social cohesion. Approaches to the modernization of traditional societies. Problems and alternative strategies of nation building.