Intensive study of a critical historical episode focusing on documentary evidence leading to the writing of a research essay.

Graduate courses emphasize readings and discussion involving written and oral reports or original research and the writing of research papers. The content of courses with authorized reenrollment provisions in a given field may change from term to term, thus making possible a rich and varied offering in history for the graduate student. Students may enroll in such courses for more than one term or more than one section during the same term, provided that duplication of content does not result. Sheets giving detailed information concerning all graduate courses to be offered during a particular term are available in the History office during the preceding term. Students desiring to enroll in these courses must have the permission of the department.
