500. Special Problems in Family Medicine
Fall, Spring, Summer. 1 to 2 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 48 credits in all enrollments for this course.
R: Open only to graduate-professional students in the departments of Family Medicine and Human Medicine. Approval of department required.

501. Clinical Practicum in Family Medicine
Fall, Spring, Summer. 1 to 3 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 9 credits in all enrollments for this course.
R: Open only to graduate-professional students in the College of Osteopathic Medicine upon completion of Units I and II.

515. Health Care in Underserved Areas
Fall of even-numbered years. 2 to 3 credits. Interdepartmental with Family and Community Medicine.
R: Graduate-professional students in colleges of Human Medicine.

516. Migrant Worker Health Care
Summer. 1 to 2 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 6 credits in all enrollments for this course. Interdepartmental with Family and Community Medicine.
R: Open only to graduate-professional students in the colleges of Human and Osteopathic Medicine. Approval of department required.

517. Introduction to Sports Medicine
Fall. 2(2-0) Interdepartmental with Family and Community Medicine.
R: Graduate-professional students in colleges of Human and Osteopathic Medicine.

518. Sports Medicine II
Spring. 1 credit.

520. Primary Care in Developing Countries
Spring of odd-numbered years. 2(2-0) R: Open only to graduate-professional students in colleges of Human and Osteopathic Medicine.

530. Special Topics in Family Practice
Fall, Spring, Summer. 2 to 3 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 6 credits in all enrollments for this course.
R: Graduate-professional students in colleges of Human and Osteopathic Medicine.

540. Principles of Family Medicine I
Fall. 1 credit.

541. Preceptorship Training
Fall, Spring, Summer. 1 to 8 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 24 credits in all enrollments for this course. Interdepartmental with Human Medicine. Administration by Human Medicine.
R: One year of graduate-professional program in College of Human Medicine.

542. Clinical Medicine in the Community
Fall, Spring, Summer. 6 to 12 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 12 credits in all enrollments for this course.
P: FMP 541. R: Open only to graduate-professional students in College of Human Medicine.

550. Comprehensive Care Clerkship
Fall, Spring, Summer. 4 to 20 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 20 credits in all enrollments for this course. Interdepartmental with Human Medicine.
R: FMP 602. R: Open only to graduate-professional students in College of Human Medicine.

560. Family Practice Clerkship
Fall, Spring. 6 to 16 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 36 credits in all enrollments for this course.
P: FMP 602. R: Open only to graduate-professional students in College of Human Medicine. Clinical experience in primary care in family physicians' offices and in hospitals.

570. Elective Clerkship in Family Practice
Fall, Spring, Summer. 6 to 12 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 19 credits in all enrollments for this course.
P: FMP 602. R: Open only to third or fourth year graduate-professional students in College of Human Medicine.

580. Inpatient Clerkship in Family Practice
Fall, Spring, Summer. 6 to 12 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 12 credits in all enrollments for this course.
P: FMP 602. R: Open only to graduate-professional students in College of Human Medicine. Demonstration of the role of the family physician in hospital settings. Management of consultations and referrals.

590. Family Practice Clerkship
Fall, Spring, Summer. 6 to 12 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 12 credits in all enrollments for this course.
P: FMP 602. R: Open only to graduate-professional students in College of Human Medicine. Application of survey and epidemiologic research methods. Use of clinical data.

600. Ambulatory Clerkship
Fall, Spring, Summer. 6 to 12 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 12 credits in all enrollments for this course.
P: FMP 602. R: Open only to graduate-professional students in College of Human Medicine. Clinical aspects of sports medicine. Care of acute and chronic sports injuries, mostly of college league athletes.

615. Core Competencies I
Fall. 2 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 6 credits in all enrollments for this course.
P: FMP 602. R: Open only to graduate-professional students in College of Human Medicine. A weekly seminar addressing core knowledge and skills from an interdisciplinary perspective.

FAMILY PRACTICE—Descriptions of Courses

FMP

Department of Family Practice
College of Human Medicine

601. Preceptorship Training
Fall, Spring, Summer. 1 to 8 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 24 credits in all enrollments for this course. Interdepartmental with Human Medicine. Administration by Human Medicine.
R: One year of graduate-professional program in College of Human Medicine.

602. Clinical Medicine in the Community
Fall, Spring, Summer. 6 to 12 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 12 credits in all enrollments for this course.
P: FMP 541. R: Open only to graduate-professional students in College of Human Medicine.

605. Comprehensive Care Clerkship
Fall, Spring, Summer. 4 to 20 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 20 credits in all enrollments for this course. Interdepartmental with Human Medicine.
R: FMP 602. R: Open only to graduate-professional students in College of Human Medicine.

610. Elective Clerkship in Family Practice
Fall, Spring, Summer. 6 to 12 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 19 credits in all enrollments for this course.
P: FMP 602. R: Open only to third or fourth year graduate-professional students in College of Human Medicine. Experience in family practice in diverse settings. Primary, continuing and comprehensive care.

615. Medical Care in Developing Countries
Fall, Spring, Summer. 6 to 12 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 12 credits in all enrollments for this course.
P: FMP 602. R: Open only to graduate-professional students in College of Human Medicine. Supervised experience in hospitals, outpatient clinics, villages and medical research centers in developing countries.

617. Sports Medicine Clerkship
Fall, Spring, Summer. 6 to 12 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 12 credits in all enrollments for this course.
P: FMP 602. R: Open only to graduate-professional students in College of Human Medicine.

619. Ambulatory Clerkship
Fall, Spring, Summer. 1 to 8 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 15 credits in all enrollments for this course. Interdepartmental with Medicine and Pediatrics.
P: FMP 602. R: Open only to graduate-professional students in College of Human Medicine. Continuous and comprehensive patient care under supervision of appropriate physicians.

635. Core Competencies I
Fall. 2 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 6 credits in all enrollments for this course.
P: FMP 602. R: Open only to graduate-professional students in College of Human Medicine. A weekly seminar addressing core knowledge and skills from an interdisciplinary perspective.
FINANCE

Department of Finance
The Eli Broad College of Business
The Eli Broad Graduate School of Management

201. Personal Investing
Fall, Spring, Summer. 3(3-0)
R. Not open to students with credit in FI 312
Introduction to the world of personal investing. Formulation of intelligent and practical investment plans. Implementation using stocks, bonds, and other investments. Performance evaluation with respect to stated goals.

311. Financial Management
Fall, Spring, Summer. 3(3-0)
P: ACC 202 or ACC 230 or ACC 251H or HB 302.
Open only to juniors and seniors.

312. Introduction to Investments
Fall, Spring, Summer. 3(3-0)
P: FI 311.

313. Management of Financial Institutions
Fall, Spring, Summer. 3(3-0)
P: FI 311. R: Open only to majors in the College of Business.
Management, decision-making and policy formulation for depository and non-depository financial institutions. Emphasis on commercial banking, with attention to S&Ls, credit unions and non-bank financial institutions.

314. Advanced Business Finance (W)
Fall, Spring, Summer. 3(3-0)
P: FI 312, FI 413 or concurrently. R: Open only to seniors in the College of Business. Completion of Tier I writing requirement.
Advanced financial management of business firms. Theoretical and case applications that integrate capital budgeting, valuation, capital structure, mergers, international business finance, working capital management and ethical considerations.

484. Life and Health Insurance
Spring. 3(3-0)
P: STT 315, FIS 311.
Economics of life and health insurance in the United States, with international comparisons. Actuarial models, underwriting, marketing, and taxation. Diversity issues, such as gender-based underwriting and the financial impact of AIDS.

Fall, Spring. 3(3-0)
P: FI 311; MSC 310 or EC 340.
Financial management of multinational firms. Theoretical and applied aspects of international capital budgeting, capital structure, cash management, and exchange-rate risk. Ethical considerations.

455. Computer Applications for Financial Modeling
Fall, Spring. 3(3-0)
P: FI 311; MSC 310 or STT 422 or STT 442.
Application of personal and mainframe computers and software to corporate, personal and international financial analysis.

478. Investment Strategies and Speculative Markets
Fall, Spring, Summer. 3(3-0)
P: FI 312.

490. Independent Study
Fall, Spring, Summer. 1 to 3 credits.
R: Open only to seniors.
Supervised independent study of special topics in finance or insurance.

801. Managerial Finance
Fall, Spring. 3(3-0)
P: ACC 300. R: Open only to students in the Program in Professional Accounting, to MBA students, and to students in programs for which FI 801 is a cataloged requirement.
Short-, intermediate- and long-term problems. Financial planning and control. Applications in domestic and international settings.

811. Principles of Risk Management and Insurance
Fall, Spring. 3(3-0)
P: STT 315.

812. Financial Management
Spring. 3(3-0)
P: ACC 311. R: Open only to MBA students in the Advanced Management Program.

813. Risk Management for Commercial and Public Entities
Fall. 3(3-0)
R: Open only to graduate students in the College of Business.
Analysis of exposures, risk management alternatives, and their social, legal and economic implications. Cost and benefit analysis of decisions.

814. Introduction to Investments
Fall, Spring. 3(3-0)
P: FI 811. R: Open only to students in the Program in Professional Accounting and to MBA students.

821. Financial Markets and Strategies
Spring. 3(3-0)
P: FI 851. R: Open only to students in the Program in Professional Accounting and to MBA students.
Theories concerning domestic and international financial markets and instruments. Effects of risk and maturity on prices. Arrangement of business and portfolio risk and returns with options and futures.

841. International Financial Management
Fall. 3(3-0)
P: FI 801. R: Open only to graduate students in Business.
Capital budgeting, capital structure decisions, cash management, foreign currency markets and exchange rate risk management. Ethical and tax considerations.

842. Advanced Managerial Finance
Fall, Spring. 3(3-0)
P: FI 801. R: Open only to graduate students in Business.
Financial planning and control using financial theory and management techniques. Applications in international settings. Use of business cases.

850. Financial Decision Models
Fall. 3(3-0)
Interdepartmental with Accounting.
P: FI 801. R: Open only to students in M.B.A. programs and to students in Program in Professional Accounting.
Development and application of computerized financial models in finance and accounting, and in control activities. Use of financial planning software on personal and mainframe computers. Use of models in case analysis.

852. Bank Management
Spring. 3(3-0)
P: FI 801. R: Open only to graduate students in Business.
Nature, structure and management of commercial banks. Focus on products and services offered, risks, policies, and strategies. Applications in domestic and international settings.

856. Theory of Finance
Fall. 3(3-0)
R: Open only to Ph.D. students in Business or approval of department.
Introduction to the financial theory of the firm. Theoretical models dealing with capital structure, cost of capital, dividend policy and leasing.

858. Corporate Finance Theory
Spring of odd-numbered years. 3(3-0)
P: FI 850. R: Open only to Ph.D. students in Business.
Theoretical foundations. Recent empirical research in capital structure, dividend policy, and agency theory.