

AGRICULTURAL AT TECHNOLOGY

Institute of Agricultural Technology College of Agriculture and Natural Resources

045 Agricultural Communications

Fall. 2(2-0) R: Open only to students in the Institute of Agricultural Technology.

Communication in agriculture including public speaking, group discussion, business correspondence, technical reports and a review of grammar and mechanics.

055 Agricultural Finance

Spring. 3(4-0) R: Open only to students in the Institute of Agricultural Technology.

Introduction to agricultural finance. Types of credit. Financial alternatives.

071 Technical Mathematics

Fall. 2(0-4) R: Open to students in the Institute of Agricultural Technology.

Basic arithmetic. Whole numbers, common fractions, decimals, percentage, ratio, and proportion. Basic algebraic concepts and solutions for practical geometric problems.

290 Independent Study in Agricultural Technology

Fall, Spring, Summer. 1 to 4 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 6 credits in all enrollments for this course. R: Open to freshmen or sophomores or agricultural technology students in the Institute of Agricultural Technology.

Supervised individual study on experimental, theoretical or applied topics related to agricultural science and technology.

291 Selected Topics in Agricultural Technology

Fall, Spring, Summer. 1 to 3 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 6 credits in all enrollments for this course. R: Open to freshmen or sophomores or agricultural technology students in the Institute of Agricultural Technology.

Selected topics of current interest in agricultural science and technology.

293 Professional Internship in Agricultural Technology

Fall, Spring, Summer. 3 to 6 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 6 credits in all enrollments for this course. R: Open to freshmen or sophomores or agricultural technology students in the Institute of Agricultural Technology.

Supervised professional experience in agencies, business and industry related to a student's major field of study.