Foundation of the United States Air Force I Laboratory
Fall. 1(0-4) C: AS 111 concurrently.
Introduces new cadets to AFROTC and the Air Force. Provides cadets with basic skill and knowledge to be a functional member of the AFROTC cadet corps. Provides cadets with information to help them decide whether to continue with AFROTC and pursue a commission in the USAF. The laboratory covers five major subject areas.

Foundation of the United States Air Force II Laboratory
Spring. 1 credit.
Introduces the U.S. Air Force today. Officership and professionalism; group leadership problems; introduction to communication skills.

Foundation of the United States Air Force II Laboratory
Spring. 1(0-4) C: AS 112 concurrently.
Introduces new cadets to AFROTC and the Air Force. Provides cadets with basic skills and knowledge to be a functional member of the AFROTC cadet corps. Provides cadets with information to help them decide whether to continue with AFROTC and pursue a commission in the USAF.

The Evolution of USAF Air and Space Power I
Fall. 1(1-2)
Air Force heritage. Evolution of air power concepts and doctrine; introduction to ethics and values; introduction to leadership; continuing application of communication skills.

The Evolution of USAF Air and Space Power I Laboratory
Fall. 1(0-4) C: AS 211 concurrently.
The second year of leadership laboratory provides training to ensure every cadet is mentally and physically prepared to attend field training during the following summer. The course continues and amplifies subject areas from the 100 year.

The Evolution of USAF Air and Space Power II
Spring. 1 credit.
Air Force leaders. Role of technology in the growth of air power; introduction to Quality Air Force; group leadership problems; continuing application of communication skills.

The Evolution of USAF Air and Space Power II Laboratory
Spring. 1(0-4) C: AS 212 concurrently.
The second year of leadership laboratory provides training to ensure every cadet is mentally and physically prepared to attend field training during the following summer.

Air Force Leadership Studies I
Fall. 3(0-3)
Communication, management, and ethical skills for Air Force officers. Emphasizes standards and professionalism in the modern officer corps. Leadership laboratory required for AFROTC cadets.

Air Force Leadership Studies I Laboratory
Fall. 1(0-4) R: Open to undergraduate students in the Department of Aerospace Studies. Approval of department. C: AS 321 concurrently.
Provides cadets the opportunity to exercise leadership skills in the operation and administration of the cadet wing in a constructive learning environment.

Air Force Leadership Studies II
Spring. 3(3-0) RB: AS 321
Leadership theory, traditional Air Force management functions, and current practices. Emphasizes the application of leadership concepts by junior officers. Leadership laboratory required for AFROTC cadets.

Air Force Leadership Studies II Laboratory
Spring. 1(0-4) R: Open to undergraduate students in the Department of Aerospace Studies. Approval of department. C: AS 322 concurrently.
Provides cadets the opportunity to exercise leadership skills in the operation and administration of the cadet wing in a constructive learning environment.

National Security Affairs
Fall. 3 credits. RB: AS 322

National Security Affairs Laboratory
Fall. 1(0-4) R: Open to undergraduate students in the Department of Aerospace Studies. Approval of department. C: AS 421 concurrently.
Cadets continue to exercise their leadership skills generally in higher-level corps leadership positions. The focus is on developing leadership skills and knowledge that will be needed at their first duty station.

National Security Affairs and Preparation For Active Duty
Spring. 3 credits. RB: AS 421

National Security Affairs II Laboratory
Spring. 1(0-4) R: Open to undergraduate students in the Department of Aerospace Studies. Approval of department. C: AS 422 concurrently.
Cadets continue to exercise their leadership skills generally in higher-level corps leadership positions.

Independent Study
Fall, Spring, Summer. 3 credits. R: Open to juniors or seniors. Approval of department. Investigation of a particular aspect of aerospace studies.