within the next two or three years, is a cheering one, and now that the College is placed on a reasonably secure financial basis, there seems to be no reason why it may not materialize.

Respectfully submitted,

LINDA E. Landon,
Librarian.

East Lansing, Michigan, June 30, 1915.

East Lansing, Michigan, June 30, 1915.
REPORT OF THE DEAN OF SUMMER SCHOOL.

President J. L. Snyder, East Lansing, Michigan:

Dear Sir:—I herewith submit to you a report of the Summer Session for the season of 1915.

The Session opened June 23rd and continued until July 30th.

The College offered fifty courses of instruction taken from the regular curriculum of the College. The larger proportion of these courses was taken from the first and second college years in order to accommodate those who might desire introductory lines of work. To these was added a considerable number of advanced courses for the benefit of those students who might desire to push forward in the junior and senior years, as well as those persons from outside who might be prepared for work of this type. The enrollment in the latter courses this year, confirmed the opinion that a demand for this type of course might exist, on the part of both of the above classes of students.
