Other academic information:

Teaching is usually via lectures, supplemented by seminars and tutorials with smaller groups. At Northumbria, there is an emphasis on independent learning with individual support by academic staff. All modules have a minimum of 36 classroom hours and carry the equivalent of three US-style credit hours per 10-credit module

Northumbria University, officially the University of Northumbria at Newcastle, is a university located in Newcastle upon Tyne in the North East of England. A former polytechnic, it was established as one of the new universities in 1992. It is a member of the University Alliance and the second university of Newcastle.

Each year consists of two semesters and summer term. Autumn semester runs from mid- September to mid-December, Spring semester runs from early January to April and Summer term runs from early May to early June.
