Other academic information:

The semesters last from late August to late December, and mid-January to late May with 15 weeks of classes and nine days of exams.

Coursework is available in the following disciplines: global business, international marketing, management, and European business. Students may enroll in any of HKUST's courses, such as the humanities and social sciences, subject to the approval of their MSU department for the transfer of credit upon return to the United States. (All courses will be taught in English.)

Students are required to take a minimum of twelve (12) credits per semester.
