Overview: The University of Technology Sydney (UTS) is located in downtown Sydney, Australia. Students will be able to choose from a full range of courses in Business, Design, Education, Engineering, Humanities and Social Sciences, Journalism and Media, Information Technology, Law, Nursing, Midwifery, Health, Science and Language and Cultural Studies

For admission to the program, students must have completed one year of full-time study at a university and have a GPA of a 3.0 or higher.

Other academic information Study Abroad and Exchange students must enroll in a full-time load at UTS. The full-time study load is 18-24 credit points per semester. Credit points apply to all subjects (except higher degree research programs) and represent a measure of the student workload by subject. Most subjects at UTS are 6 credit points each except for those offered by the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences, which are 8 credit points. Some Law subjects may also be 8 credit points.

Most UTS subjects are taught through a mix of lectures and tutorials. Some subjects incorporate seminars, presentations, laboratory work and/or individual study. Lectures, tutorials, seminars or laboratory sessions normally total between 12 and 24 hours per week

Information on coursework assessment for each subject is given at the beginning of each semester. Written assignments, tutorial participation, practical work, group work, projects, short tests or seminar presentations may all form part of the assessment. In some subjects, the final examination may be worth 20 to 60 per cent of the final subject grade. Some subjects have no final examinations.

CALENDAR: February semester (Autumn) from February to June, July semester (Spring) from July to November.
