   Associate Provost Gaboury briefed the committee on the upcoming Higher Learning Commission (HLC) visit on April 4 and 5. He encouraged members to visit the HLC page on the Provost’s website and review the Assurance Argument, particularly criterion 3 and 4 where the University Committee on Curriculum is referenced.

Chairperson Urquhart shared that the Faculty Senate approved the UCC with moving forward with a survey to gather information about a possible revised grading system. The key thing to note with the proposal is a better ability to evaluate and reward student learning. He also mentioned that members should give consideration to leadership positions on UCC next year especially if they are continuing as a college representative to the committee.
